Letter from the Coronet

Unto the Populace of Three Mountains, do Baroness Penelope and Baron Etienne sent greetings on this fine Autumn evening.

We had a marvelous time at Battle Of The Bands and thank his Excellency Michael for running such a fun and entertaining event. It was well attended and I think enjoyed by all.

As we move into the feasting season, the calendar becomes busier. Up next will be Honour Feast and Arts and Sciences Championship in November. The Honoree is Beak Bell of Dumfries, a truly deserving individual, please come to celebrate her. And we cannot wait to see Our Populace show off their many artistic talents and compete to be the next champion. Also please submit recommendations for the next Honoree so that we can announce them at the event.

In December will be the Tribarionoal Yule. It is sure to be a warm and festive event and a special time to spend with all the local populace. And of course in January, 12th Night hosted by the Barony where Their Royal Highnesses Kathall and Merowyn will be stepping up. Dont forget to submit recommendations for both Kingdom and Baronial awards.

Yours in Service,

Penelope and Etienne, Three Mountains

Officer Reports

Seneschale - William:
Unto the Coronets, Council, and Populace of Three Mountains,
This has been a busy month, both within the Barony and within my modern life, so I have not had a chance to get as much accomplished and intended.
It appeared that The Purge on September 29th was well attended, with many useful items finding new homes. We will plan to schedule our next Purge for March 30th, pending someone stepping up to coordinate details.
We do have Date Requests in for both Something Bardic on April 10, 2027 and for Battle of the Bands for September 24-26, 2027. Neither are currently showing on the Kingdom Calendar but I'm working to get that rectified.
Finally, Kingdom Quarterly Reports are due at the end of the month, so please get your reports in and be certain to share copies of the reports with both me and the Coronets.
Please be sure to sign-in to the 'Chat' so we can take proper attendance.
YIS, William

Chamberlain - Michael:
All items are returned to storage in good order and the unit is ready for a fall organization day!
We are still in possession of Stromgards barrier and that is high on my list of things to do when i am physically able.
Nothing else to report.
YIS
Michael

Arts and Sciences - Dragomira:
Greetings unto Their Most Excellent Excellencies and the Fantabulous Populace of Three Mountains. We had a wonderful turnout for Anya Seminova's Candle Making Class at A&S Night. Fun was had, knowledge was gained, and people went home with awesome candles. Songs and stories of the supernatural were performed upstairs, leading to an overall fantastic night. I am in talks to have a culinary class offered at the November A&S Night, to be announced.

Yours in Service,
Dragomira Skomorokhova
A&S Minister Three Mountains

Dance - Kateline:
Next dance night is October 27th.

Herald - Braennan:
No silliness today. I feel like death warmed over.
I have nothing to report and will catch up next month.
Sorry folks
Brennan

Scribe -Carith:
Greetings unto their Excellencies and the Populace of Three Mountains,

This month the scribal office of Three Mountains has been busy behind the scenes, working on creating new charters for the Barony which I hope to have available starting in the next month or two. Keep your eyes open for an announcement.

I continue to attend both the first and second Tuesdays at the Lodge where people can pick up and drop off charters. Speaking of which, if you have Baronial charters please let me know so I can arrange for them to be collected by the end of October. I will need them for Honor Feast.
Yours in Service,

Baroness Carith
Scribe, Barony of Three Mountains

Chatelaine - Haeloc:
Greetings to the Coronets, officers, and populace of Three Mountains

Life continues to be crazy so my report is brief
- We had 4 newcomers at Newcomer Night on October 6th, one of which was simply a brief visitor from another kingdom in town for work, and one of which may already be joining a local rapier practice or two.

- We have a Gold Key officer, but we still need to submit the change of officer form. It's been a couple years since I've done that, so I'm hoping our Seneschal can assist?

- November's newcomer night is to be determined. Open to suggestions. I'm very tired.

Yours in Service,
Haeloc of Three Mountains

Gold Key - Adelaide:
Adelaide was planning to attend council but something came up. Her report follows:
- Gold key is accounted for, minus one small child's tabard. We think someone went home with it from Stormgods or Mountain's Pride Field Day.
- Gold key email has been accessed
- Still need to submit change of officer form, but could use the seneschal's assistance with that.

Yours in Service,
Haeloc of Three Mountains

Chronicler - Pleiades:
Greetings all! The October 2026 edition of The Plume was posted to the Book of Faces on October 15th.
YIS, HL Pleiades

Historian - Judith:
Nothing interesting to report this month.
Yours in Service,
Judith of Three Mountains

Web Minister - Etienne:
Greetings to the populace and officers of Three Mountains.
Routine updates and corrections have been made to the web site.
I have also started to experiment with adding elements to the front landing page that I have been working on in the total redesign of our web page. This is a good place to test it and work out the bugs. I have added a sort of feed to the front page. A spot for announcements and eventually a listing of immediate upcoming events and socials. The goal is to make this information quicker to access on mobile without having to dig through menus and sub menus. The calendar stuff (this has not been implemented yet) will dynamically update, but announcement posts will have to be added manually.
Keeping in mind this is still in process and a little rough around the edges, please let me know what you think of it - especially if you are a primarily mobile user of the web site.
In Service,
Etienne

Knight Marshal - Cormac:
No report received

Archery - Tamsin:
Our last weekly archery practice for 2026 was held on October 15th. Several of us gathered to have a little fun and to shoot some of the last royal rounds before the October 31st cutoff for the SCA ballistic season. Although the weekly practices have ended until the spring, be on the lookout in Facebook and Discord for the occasional weekend practice when the weather is favorable.
Thank you to everyone for coming out to the practices. I really enjoyed meeting several new people, introducing archery to a few not-so-new members of the SCA and witnessing others improve their skills over the past 7-months.
I hope to see you at the Tri-Baronial Yule, where the three Baronial Archery Marshals of Three Mountains, Dragons Mist and Stromgard, are planning to hold a couple ballistic related classes. Also, if you are interest in becoming a junior or senior Archery or Thrown Weapons Marshal or just need to renew your status, we can help you with that during Yule as well.
Have a wonderful winter season.
YIS, Tamsin Muniere
Three Mountains Baronial Archery Marshal

Rapier - Sithmaith :
Just a quick note to say that there is nothing new to report. We have fighters attending practice, but none of them were damaged since last month.
YiS,
Sithmaith

Final event report

"Rock and roll is a nuclear blast of reality in a mundane world where no-one is allowed to be magnificent." Kim Fowley (Former Manager of The Runaways)

Wow… well THAT was fun! BotB has grown substantially from last year and once again an amazing rock filled weekend of fun and frivolity was had by all.. There were 6 full teams that competed this year so we saw the melee tournament quite filled out which provided more than half a days activities for everyone involved. Again karaoke was well attended on friday night and the barrier tournament allowed for a bit more action in the afternoon after a nice period of cooldown pickup fights for the heavies. We also had time and space for a Fencing Tournament of Champions to decide the Champions scroll! I must thank everyone again who went out of their way to volunteer and help at the event and thank the site owners who went out of their way to help make this a great event. The donated prizes were a huge hit and well received and the champions feast was well received.

Again the VC was a huge boon to the event and greatly aids in turning a profit for the barony. If you have time at events where the VC is present volunteering there is a great way to help the barony.
We had a HUGE number of daytrippers and a large amount of visiting royalty from around the region as well as far as Blanth an Or. For next year we plan to enact Prereg and better control of Parking and traffic flow.
We saved money by not renting a truck as we were allowed to have baronial property stored on site and the owners gave up a few days to setup and teardown as well as the use of their portapotty to save a bit on rental costs. $300 for the use of that site is amazing and the barony should hold more events there in the future.

The event proposal was a total of $2047.18
We had a total of 137 ppl through the gate (34 adults weekend, 69 adult day trips, 19 Comps, 14 children) with 14 NMR.
Total expenses was $1950.17
Net profit $2325.75
Net profit after NMR $2185.75
Retained by branch $2185.75

SOOOooo we have booked another tour date for next year! September 24th- 26th. We expect to grow the event again while sticking to the same formula that made this event a success. Event bid coming soon.
We have two outstanding checks (NMR and Porta Potties) we cannot close at this time but expect to in November.

Pending closure for two outstanding checks. Anticipate closure at November meeting

Janeltis Name Day - Haeloc
No further updates since last month, other than that I'm still seeking staff. Currently I have a couple backups if absolutely needed for kitchen lead and gate lead, but they'll be coming right out of being 12th Night staff and I'd rather not pull them if I can get someone else.

- Basically, I need volunteers for everything still, and mundane life has been kicking my butt the last two months. Please speak up if you want to volunteer for gate, kitchen, games, silent auction, or anything else, or if you have ideas for who I can ask. Thanks!

Yours in Service,
Haeloc of Three Mountains

Steward: Dragomira Skomorokhova
We are still waiting on the calendar to update. The date had to be changed to April 10th to avoid conflict with Stromgard Hearts the Arts. I am going forward with creating site copy with the date of the tenth and plan to go ahead and reserve the lodge for that date as well. Nothing more to report at this time.

Portland, OR 97232

Note: November and December have multiple Yule Celebrations across the kingdom. This handout prioritizes local events, kingdom events, and events within a reasonable driving distance. Please refer to antir.org/events for a full calendar.

The events to the left are paid events that require garb unless otherwise noted. Single day events typically charge a gate fee between $25-45. Each event will have more details available (including schedules, pre-registration links, and fees) on the An Tir Events web page

If you do not have garb but would like to attend, alert your Chatelaine and arrangements can be made. Most events offer "Gold Key," which is a collection of appropriate garb available for attendees for no additional charge. Check with the event steward or local Chatelaine to find out if Gold Key will be available for an event.

Social nights, practices, arts and sciences nights, etc. are more casual (modern clothing, usually free to attend) but if there is a class or workshop, the host may charge a fee for supplies. You may always attend to simply observe and socialize without payment regardless.
